I would like to come back for a recharge!

Marius

I enjoyed this and learnt a lot. Marcia knows what she's talking about.

Karen D

The workshop was encouraging and genuinely interesting. Marcia, this is definitely your passion.

Nico

Takes one back to the basics. Asks questions I have not thought of in a while. It is an opportunity to assess one's values.

Veronica

The seminar was very good. I have discovered myself and found my passion. We mothers like to take care of our kids' passions rather than our own.

Hilda

Have become aware of a lot of things which will help me organise and find myself and my passion.

Teresa

Very useful material. Makes you think about stuff you rarely think about.

Yvette

In order for me to have more fun, I need to put myself first. I must treat myself.

Zukile

I enjoyed the talking and the comments were real.
